

Patrick Burton, Vice President

Patrick has more than 23 years of progressive executive management experience in the healthcare industry, including both clinical and professional backgrounds with extensive knowledge and experience in strategic sourcing and supply chain management, physician practice and hospital health system management and managed care network operations.

Over the past 13 years, Patrick has worked for Broadlane, MedAssets and now Vizient managing the national GPO's physician preference item portfolio, as a healthcare performance improvement consultant and has been leading one of Vizient's largest regional purchasing coalitions, Southern Strategic Sourcing Partners, LLC ("S3P"). Prior to his career with Vizient, Patrick was a senior healthcare consultant with Managed Healthcare Consulting Services and chief operating officer for Kids First Pediatric Alliance.

Patrick began his career with Aetna/Provider Networks of America where he served as a physician recruiter, facility recruiter and regional network manager and development team leader.

Patrick holds a bachelor's degree in marketing from Baylor University in Waco, Texas.

